

Mrs. Loring named as magazine consultant

Leisure World resident Helen Loring, a psychologist and holistic counselor, has been named senior community consultant of the new magazine "Senior Life" published monthly.

Mrs. Loring is a frequent lecturer in Leisure World and taught numerous adult education courses for Leisure World residents.

Besides being the senior consultant for the magazine, she is also a contributing writer.

In the first issue of "Senior Life" in July, Mrs. Loring wrote an article on "Sex in the Second Half." Her second article in the November issue was titled "How Flexible Are You" and involved a quiz.

Helen Loring