

July 29, 1980

Dear Mr. Zimmerman,
Forgive me! Not feeling well and the heat is my excuse.

You have a summary of my "past".

I could add that I went to the "New School for Social Research" in N. Y. for a year where I took some advanced courses in education, psychology and philosophy

After retirement I worked with disadvantaged teenagers in Pacoima Calif. and tutored as a teacher's aid.

I found that which is basic in man's needs - to express himself in the arts I took up painting, sculpture, mosaics and jewelry, and sculpture in plaster.

When I retired to Leisure World, I found that I could continue my interests.

I did some work as an activist in Common Cause, and served in the Institute for Living. But above all, though I missed old friendships, I found that love without which one can not survive, the love of warm friendships here.

I hope that this is what you asked for, and forgive me again.

Sincerely yours
Jane Simon