

LWer Cited for Work In Gastroenterology

Leisure World resident Dr. J. Edward Berk, professor of medicine at UC Irvine, was one of two Irvine researchers who were honored for their work in gastroenterology, the study of the stomach and intestines and their diseases.

Dr. Berk and Dr. Burton H. Smith, assistant clinical professor of medicine, have been presented with the Rorer Award by the American College of Gastroenterology for their research report, "The Use of Ultraviolet Endoscopy to Detect Upper Gastrointestinal Bleeding Sites."

The award is given each year to the authors of the three best papers published in the American Journal of Gastroenterology.

In addition, Dr. Berk

Dr. J. Edward Berk

has been named president-elect of the American College of Gastroenterology.

Dr. Berk resides at 894-C Ronda Sevilla.