

Filson To Guest on Program

Wallace T. Filson, president of the Third Laguna Hills Mutual, will be the special guest of Robert Price, administrator on Administrative Chat today on Channel 6 at 4 p.m.

Filson was born in Hamilton,

Missouri, the youngest son of a small town lawyer.

After completing his education at the public school there, he attended Park College in Parkville, Missouri and received an A.B. degree in 1925. From 1925 to 1931 he worked for a title firm and during that time he attended Law School at Urbana, Illinois and obtained his law degree.

In 1931, he moved to Danville, Illinois and practiced law there until August, 1937 when he accepted a position as Assistant Resident Title Attorney with the Prudential Insurance Company.

He retired from Prudential after 30 years of service.

During his residence in Hinsdale, Illinois, Filson was involved with the organization and direction of Home Owners Association, involving 309 homes in an unincorporated area.

As temporary chairman of the Association, he was involved in the take over from the subdivider and later became a director and first president of the association.

Later, Filson served on the Planning Commission in the area.

The Filsons have three children, the eldest, a daughter is married to a school teacher; one son who is an engineer in Florida and another son who is with the Bank of America in Los Angeles.

Wallace Filson

Filson is a member of the Bar in both Illinois and Indiana and is an Honorary member of the Illinois Land Title Association. He is a member of the Masons and Shrine.