

For the Historical Society

Photos to be featured

Leisure World history in photography will be the special feature of the quarterly membership meeting of the Leisure World Historical Society on Oct. 15 in

Harold Kime

Clubhouse 3.

Harold Kime, Leisure World cameraman, has arranged for an automated slide presentation on the history of the community during the refreshment period of the meeting in Dining Room 2. The pre-meeting social period will begin at 9:30 a.m. said Merwin W. (Jim) Waterman, society president, and the formal session will begin at 10 a.m.

Kime, who soon will leave Leisure World with his wife, Lucille, for residence in the Christian Church Home in Rosemead, will be program chairman at the meeting. He will project a collection of photographs made by Dr. Clayton Johnson during the construction of Clubhouse 4, and will describe the pictures.

The program also will include commentary about the Leisure World Library's collection of paperbacks by Florence Wolfinger, library volunteer; and music by Wmillee and Al Michelson, well-known entertainers in the community.
