

BERNARD LEDERER

Born: Berwick, Louisiana

Family migrated to Los Angeles when I was 6 years old.
Educated L.A. schools. Attended UCLA, received BA, then attended Graduate school of Social Welfare, USC

Employment: Social worker, Bureau of County Welfare
Casework supervisor, State Relief Administration
Social worker, Department of Social Welfare, N.Y.C.
Relocation supervisor, Dept. of Urban Renewal, New Rochelle, N.Y.
Ass't. Relocation Officer, Redevelopment Agency,
Washington, D.C.
Information and Procedure Specialist, same agency.

WW II: Captain of the Rescue Squad and Ass't. Head of the Motor American Women's Voluntary Services, Washington, D.C.
Red Cross Home Service Social Worker, volunteer

Civic Activities: League of Women Voters of New Rochelle, N.Y., President
League of Women Voters, Westchester County, Vice president
Womens Club of New Rochelle, vice president
Appointed by mayor, chairman of Housing Advisory Committee Appointed by city manager, Member of Housing Authority
Appointed by mayor, member of Board of Education
Appointed by city council to city's Charter Revision Committ
Served on numerous boards of civic and charity organizations

Leisure World Activities: Member of Philharmonic Society and Historical Society
Served on Blue Ribbon budget committee, Saddleback Valley
School District
Member Liaison Committee Saddleback College
Discussion Group Leader, Foreign Policy Ass'n.
GRF nominating committee
Management contract committee
Serving 4th year on United Mutual board, have been Chairman of Grounds Maintenance Committee, secretary of the board and was recently elected president.

Family: Married to Jerome Lederer, retired director of safety for NASA, previously was founder and director of the Flight Safety Foundation.
Two daughters, Nancy Cain and Susan Lederer.