

Honoree of the Month
June 2008

Beth O'Brien

Born in Englewood, NJ, Beth attended Hunter College High School, Harvard University and Suffolk University and earned a BA & MA Degree in Education.

For six years she worked as a Manager, Executive Assistant, and Vice President with various firms before a five year stint as a Secondary School Teacher of English, History and Economics.

Before her retirement in 1998, Beth was employed by the City of Los Angeles for 25 years, as a Methods and Standard Technician, Quimby Administrator, Liaison Administrator to the Bureau of Engineering's Architectural Division and a Senior Management Analyst.

She was a National Merit Scholar and the recipient of the City of Los Angeles Career Service Award.

Since moving to Laguna Woods Village ten years ago, Beth has served as a Director, Secretary and President of the United Laguna Woods Mutual. She is a member of the Historical Society, American Italia Club, Old Pros and the Art Association. She participated in the City of Laguna Woods CERT training program and as a volunteer in the Village's Medicare D program to assist with applications. She has also served as a member of the Hospital Visitors team and a volunteer Red Cross Nurses Aide.
