

Leisure World sons remember their mamas

If you look closely you can still see the resemblance. Al Potter couldn't find a picture with his mother, but he came up with his pre-Navy photo and another of his mother with the family pet.

Milt Adamson was far from achieving his elected position as a Golden Rain Director when this photo was taken with his mother.

May 10, 1990