Dr. Tracy Strevey of Leisure World was honored by the University of Southern California at its fifth annual Academic Honors Convocation, held March 4 at Bovard Auditorium.

Strevey received the distinguished emeritus award for influencing educational development at USC during the 18 years he served as dean of the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences (1948-1960) and vice president for academic affairs (1960-66).

The Leisure Worlder initiated the honors program at the college, formulated standards and criteria for the promotion of faculty and established the Faculty Budget Committees, the Deans' Council and the Faculty Senate.
