

Jack Taylor

Jack Taylor, beloved husband of Irene Taylor, passed away Saturday, Dec. 18, 1999. Mr. Taylor was a long time resident of Leisure world, and for the past seven years was a resident of Rossmoor Towers. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were honored as Leisure Worlders of the Month for November 1999. Jack will be remembered for his artistic contributions to the Towers and for his countless creative projects. During his life, as a teacher, he inspired his students to love and appreciate art and all the adventures that life holds. Services will be private. In lieu of flowers, Irene Taylor asks that contributions in Jack's name be made to the Leisure World Foundation or Saddleback Hospital.
